

The Cardinal Flyer

Alan Estes, Superintendent
David Larkin, Principal

2008 Woodlawn High School

December '07

Editors:
Heather Attaway
Shannon Carroll

faces in THE CROWD

Senior Amanda McConaughay dissects a frog in zology class.

Freshman Alex Sandy shows off his culinary skills in Food & Nutrition class.

The Woodlawn boys basketball team runs out for their first game of the season.

Sophomore Tabitha Smolley shows off her potato print in art class.

Students enjoy pizza at the FCA meeting.

TOP 10

By: Payton Schoenbeck

Top 10 Best U.S. Presidential Candidates from W.H.S.

10 Bria McKinzie because randomness makes a good leader.

9 Jerry Langa because he skips school events for political things.

8 Jordan Wehrheim because he needs to be the President of something.

7 Kyle Boldt because people say he is a gentle leader.

6 Ryan Clinton because well, do we want another Clinton in the White House?

5 Kathy Steele because she is always happy.

4 Mr. DeBoard because we need a "SMART" President.

3 Rachel Hunsell because just think... she already has a lot of announcement experience.

2 Travis Tatlock because he is a genius.

1 Kevin Vasquez because he really is determined to become President.

WHS Chorus Marches in Chicago Parade

by Shannon Carroll

Over Thanksgiving break Mrs. McBride took her chorus class to Chicago to sing in the All-Midwest Choir and march in the Chicago Thanksgiving Parade. The following students participated: Leah Garner, Alex Edwards, Whitney Payne, Hailey Self, Jennifer Langhauser, Aubrey Hails, Vanessa Mulvaney, Kyrie Taylor, Shannon Carroll, and Michelle Boswell. They left Tuesday morning and returned on Thursday evening. As a student, I attended this trip and it was a lot of fun, but also not what we expected. We had a six hour rehearsal on Wednesday night and many of us were so sore from dancing we couldn't walk that night. Although none of that seemed to matter because that same night we got all dressed up and ate a fancy Thanksgiving dinner at the Mart Plaza. Then, we hurried over to watch "Phantom of the Opera" on Broadway at the Cadillac Palace! We woke up at 5:00 the next morning to march in the parade, which was cold but lots of fun. While in Chicago, we were also able to enjoy other famous landmarks, like Ed Debevic's and Macy's (formerly Marshall Field's). It definitely was an awesome experience and worth all the hard work. Although it's sad for the seniors that they won't be participating next year, it was an experience they will never forget!

Student Spotlight

Krista Storment, Freshman Daughter of Ralynn Storment

By: Alex Burns

Favorite class: Spanish! I just love the atmosphere of the class.

Future plans: I plan on going to SLU and work hard to become a therapist.

Hobbies: I love attending church and four-wheeling.

If you could be anything you wanted to be, what would it be? Definitely a marriage & family therapist. I've always wanted to help families.

Favorite thing about school: Besides advancing in academics? PE!

Students of the Month

WHS faculty members nominate students to receive the Principal's Award based on attitude, attendance, and outstanding effort in class. One student from each class is then selected to receive the Principal's Award and, from those students, an overall Student of the Month is chosen.

freshman

Mallory Hapeman
Daughter of Bruce and Brenda Hapeman

sophomore

Zach Campbell
Son of Greg and Sherry Campbell

junior

Tim Repasky
Son of Mark and Kathy Repasky

senior

Alex Boldt
Son of Bob and Jackie Boldt

2007-2008 Yearbooks—Order Now! (Special thanks to all students who took advantage of the early bird special.) This year's theme is "In the Limelight." Yearbooks are available for $40 each. For an additional $5, you can add your name or a special symbol such as academics or sports. The deadline for all yearbook sales will be March 1, 2008. Make checks payable to Woodlawn High School. If you have any questions, see Mrs. Owens.